Oh for sure. Should have looped everyone in in the first place, as this is some uncharted territory.

Thanks. This is all new to me, so these emails help the team.

I just started the thread with them and just looped y'all in on the chain because I forgot to do that earlier, apologies.

Hi Josh,

Just following up on this email. Were you able to touch base with the senior scientists? What do you need from us specifically?

Thanks,
Amy

Hi Josh,

Thanks for your help today in the meeting. As far as the action item for us, how best can the team help with that? Is it easier to have you take the first cut and then send around to us before BEAD?

Thanks,
Amy
